F. E. RICHARDSON NEW PRESIDENT OF OAHU LEAGUE

At Meeting Last Evening Mag-nates Choose Head; Santa Clara Coming in June

Frank E. Richardson was elected president of the Oahu Baseball League at a meeting of the members last evening. He will succeed Lorrin Andrews, who recently resigned as chief executive of the league.

Mr. Richardson is a booster for all branches of athletics, and a thorough fan, and should make a valuable man for the presidency of the league. Inasmuch as the Waseda team will play here this week, the new president will have an opportunity to begin his term of office with a rush.

Santa Clara Coming.
It was also voted to bring the strong Santa Clara University team here for a series of games in June. The Mission team will leave Santa Clara on June 13 and will remain here until July 25 or August 15. This will give the fans plenty of baseball, as the squad is a fast collection of players.

The Wasedas will leave here on the Matsushima May 3 or on the Persia Maru May 13. This will give the fans at least one month of baseball, and during May the youngsters will have an opportunity to perform while the Oahu Leaguers will stage a series. Then comes the Santa Clara team, and those who know baseball can be convinced that the Santa Clara and St. Marys have always ranked with the best college teams in the country. Mission Team Strong.

The Santa Clara squad has two good pitchers in Melhoff, a big right-hander, and Leonard, a southpaw. Then Bliss and Hickey can be called upon. Mulholland, who used to be a Rugby star, and Art Ramage, who made the All-American Rugby team, will perhaps be mentioned behind the bat. Benson at first, little Emerson at second, Smith and Precedo, not to mention Rudy Scholz, make up a strong squad. Louis Milburn, Connor and DeWanda make a fast trio of gardeners.

MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT TO PLAN FOR NEW LEAGUE

Through the courtesy of Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, the men interested in the formation of a Junior League will be given the use of the Chamber of Commerce rooms for Friday evening. The meeting will be called to order at 7:30.

All those who are interested in the plan for baseball for the youngsters are requested to be present. If you have any suggestions write them down so they may be placed before the members present. There are a number of teams already willing to join the league, and as a matter of fact the teams will be sufficient to form three six-club leagues.

In order to get everything started right the managers and those interested should be present to state their case and do their best to work for the good of baseball. If this is done, and the league is started off in the right way, then baseball is sure to receive a big boost. Come tomorrow evening—308 Kanebald building, 119 South King street.

CHALLENGES BUSHERS

The first round in both Y. M. C. A. bowling leagues was completed yesterday. The Club Leaguers rolling in the late afternoon, while the Senior Leaguers took the alleys in the evening.

Captain Atherton's Cosmos team has its best lineup, which included Andrew Mosley, recently of the Service, and Frank Benson, who had just returned from his honeymoon. Both these men showed real class. Mosley averaged 187 for the evening, while Benson was just a point lower for the two games he bowled.

The Cosmos totaled 2649 and captured all three games and total pinfall. The Cheechakos put up a fine score in the second game, but ran into a 900 count by their opponents. Captain Emmans starred for his team with a 200 average and 214 for high score, the best of the evening. Henry White and Lieut. Van Deusen of the Cosmos and W. A. Ham of the Cheechakos were all in fine form.

The P. B. C. took four from the H. A. C. in the afternoon Club League match. The work of O. P. Soares was largely responsible for the victory and he was ably supported by the other members of the P. B. C. team. Louis Stephens starred for the H. A. C. and his teammates did better than usual in pinfall. Results of the double-header:

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 5.—The above six teams are playing a deciding series for the 25th Infantry championship of last season, the original series never having been concluded. Each team is to play every other team once making 15 games in all.

The third game was played yesterday afternoon between A and I Companies, the former winning 8 to 1. With a number of regimental team players and Morgan and Jasper to alternate in the box, A Company has a strong combination, and easily outclassed the weaker I Company team. Morgan held his opponents to a single hit. A Company got in some strong work at the bat and were assisted in their run gathering by quite a few errors upon the part of the I Company players.

Following was the score:

R. H. E.
Co. A.....0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1 8
Co. I.....2 0 1 0 0 3 2—8 10 3

Batteries—For Company A, Morgan and Johnson; for Company I, Combs and Taylor. Struck out—By Morgan 6, by Combs 5. Bases on balls—Off Morgan 2, off Combs 2. Wild pitch—Morgan 1, Combs 1. Two-base hits—Moore, Ward T., and Gollah. Double play—White to Hawkins. Umpires—Rogan and Proctor. Time of game—1 hour 22 minutes.

Company F Defeats C.

A somewhat better game was played Tuesday afternoon between F and C Companies, F Company winning 6 to 1. It was a very close game up to the seventh inning, when C Company's southpaw Aulston began loading on the job. Bailey, the first man up in this inning, he hit, and then passed Arnold. "Dusty" Rhodes brought them both in with a pretty single. The next three batters, being youngsters Aulston managed to retire the side without further damage. In the eighth he was relieved by Scott, who was found much easier to swat than his predecessor. Ware's two-bagger, an error and two singles netted three more runs for F Company in this inning.

Following was the score:

Co. F.....1 0 0 0 0 2 3—6
Base hits.....1 0 0 0 1 0 14—7
Co. C.....1 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

Struck out—By Aulston 6, by Scott 1, by Waterhouse 1. Wild pitch—Aulston 1. Passed ball—Robinson 1. Umpires—Hollingsworth and Hayes. Time of game—1 hour 35 minutes.

It was a very interesting game and was viewed by a large number of fans. Following is the lineup:

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 6.—E Battery came down a little in its percentage when it was defeated by the rollicking C Battery team yesterday afternoon; not only defeated but shut out, 6 to 0. E Battery tasted defeat for the first time this season.

Al Miller has kept his team hard at work at batting practice for the past week preparing for this game and his teammates were found capable of applying the willow with great effect. Even Whitfield was able to poke out a couple of singles and Miller himself landed a triple and a no-base hit. E Battery was doomed to defeat from the first inning, when the C Battery team scored three runs.

The box score shows a number of errors on both sides, but most of them were excusable, for both teams were on their toes and played a fast game of ball.

Stoil remained on the bench during the entire game and Garber did the twirling for E Battery. It is well known that C Battery has Stoll's goat and is the only team in the league that has. Garber pitched a good game, but Miller's team was out to clout the ball, no matter who might be in the box. Montgomery was on the mound for C Battery and pitched a better game than he ever has before. Miller and Gauthier were the stars in the field and did some very fast playing.

A record crowd turned out to see the game.

These two teams met once before in this series, E Battery winning 1 to 0. The defeat of E Battery will encourage the other teams of the league and the finish is bound to be exciting.

The following was the score:
E Battery.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
C Battery.....3 1 0 0 0 2 0—6
Summary: Earned runs, C Battery 3; left on bases, E Battery 6, C Battery 10; home run, Williams; three-base hit, Miller; double play, Miller to Gauthier to Whitfield; hit by pitcher, Montgomery by Garber, Henderson by Montgomery; bases on balls, off Garber 2, off Montgomery 0; struck out, by Garber 6, by Montgomery 8; passed balls, Henderson 1, Williams 1; umpire, Hollingsworth; time of game, one hour and 32 minutes.

SAN MATEO WILL PLAY HOST TO POLOISTS IN SERIES DURING APRIL

Polo will have its day at San Mateo this month when many of the players will come to the Peninsula City from Coronado, Riverside and points in the East. Among the players who have been competing for places on El Cerrito field are Walter Hobart, Eliot McCallister, Harry Hite, Will Tevis, Jr., Capt. Charles Butters and Samuel Hopkins.

Many of the poloists of California are well-known to the Honolulu players, and on the Midwick and Coronado lists are such well-known artists as Beadleston, Neustadt, Stevenson, Ross, Velle, Weiss and Burke. The play will begin at San Mateo on April 24 and will be completed on May 1.

COACH KONO HAS WASEDA TEAM IN GOOD CONDITION

Visitors Work Out Few Kinks Yesterday Afternoon at Athletic Park

Coach Kono of the Waseda University team knows baseball. Those who watched the Japanese team in practice last evening are convinced of that fact. Considering that he was one of the star pitchers of Japan some years ago, it is to be expected, but he surely had the bunch working hard last evening.

The squad showed a little more "pep" last evening in its workout, but still two or three of the players thought the ball was too hot. Kato at short, who is figured as a star, handled himself well in getting the plays, but last evening appeared to fight the ball. Sakai at third looked steady and showed a good whip for the throw across the diamond.

Cho Makes Good.

Cho in center got everything within reach. He isn't as fast as En Sue in the garden, but he will give the Chinese star a good rub. There doesn't happen to be many outfielders with more speed than En Sue sticking around at present. The left fielder and right garden tender did not show so much in the fielding line, but they are fast and should make the locals go some.

Ichioke, the catcher, in his play around the home plate looked good yesterday, and both pitchers warmed up in good shape, so that Coach Kono is confident that the boys will play ball in good fashion. One thing that the Waseda team will excel other Japanese teams in is hitting, if their manner at the bat means anything. A good hitting Japanese team is a novelty and if Waseda can show something in the slugging line it will be a mighty big drawing card.

Looking at the situation from all angles, the game on Saturday afternoon should be a close one. Williams has a difficult ball to hit, but the Japanese players are used to a slow ball and may trouble the blond heavier somewhat. Fares will have a good lineup in the field at the Saturday game, but with the Waseda team in good shape the game should be an exciting contest from the tap of the gong. The Saturday game will begin at 3:30 and the Sunday contest will start at 2 o'clock. Seats are now on sale at the Hawaii Drug Company. Admission, 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

CAVALRY TEAMS WILL HAVE NEW CLUB SCHEDULE

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 6.—There has been a general shaking up in the baseball series for the 4th Cavalry championship. A new schedule has been printed, and all games played before the 29th of March have been discarded and will not count. Sixteen games in all have been thrown out.

Though the Hospital Corps team appears on the schedule, the games played with this team will be classed as exhibition games, only and will have no effect upon the standing of the troop teams.

Double-headers Yesterday.
Four games were played yesterday, a double-header being staged on the Castner diamond and another at Schofield. Of these the best one was between G and L troops, G Troop winning 3 to 2. Dolliver pitched an excellent game for G Troop. Likewise did Oberis, the L Troop pitcher, but his support was not so ironclad. Time hitting won the game for G. L Troop annexed as many hits, but they were scattered and therefore less effective.

The I Troop team has improved considerably since its last game, and put up a superb exhibition against the Machine Gun Troop, defeating the rapid-firers, 12 to 2. I Troop was strong at the bat, and hit the Machine Gun pitchers almost at will. Pallman poked out a couple of home runs. Provost held the Machine Gun Troop hitless until the seventh, and allowed only three hits in all. Gant starred as a catcher and Blasing, the I Troop shortstop, handled some plays in truly professional form. Mikolag made a sensational one-hand catch while two or three feet in the air that cut off a couple of runs.

E Troop defeated D 28 to 3, and C Troop was snowed under 30 to 3. Enough said.

The official standing as given to the Star-Bulletin last night was as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Troops E and G	2	0	1.000
Troop A	1	0	1.000
Troops L and C	2	1	.667
Troops K and I	1	1	.500
Troop B	1	2	.333
Troop D and M. G. T.	0	1	.000
Troops M and F	0	2	.000
